

Customized Course “ Learning to Lead” Master’s studies

---

Course information

Danish title At læere at lede

Language of instruction Point( 10 ECTS ). English

Course type Directed Research; Self-study; Supervisor interaction

Schedule From September to December 2020

Location Campus Lyngby

Scope and form Research activity, Discussions with Supervisor

Duration of Course Sept - Dec

Type of assessment Evaluation of a Written Final Report

Aid Research tools

Evaluation Pass/no Pass, Internal Examiner

Recommended prerequisites Customized, prior studies

Participants restrictions Customized

Responsible Prof. Liisa Välikangas, DTU Management

Registration

Sign up Contact Liisa Välikangas

General course objectives

Gaining knowledge and reviewing academic and managerial frameworks on how the practice of leadership is learned

---

Learning objectives

A student who has met the objectives of the course will be able to:

Report and review state-of-the-art in leadership research

Summarize and expand on academic and managerial frameworks for leadership and how the skills, practice, and tools are learned

Critically evaluate claims to leadership

Apply leadership to own one career and work

---

Content

After the course the student is expected to participate in a scientific discussion critically reviewing approaches to leadership and its practice; The students is also expected to be able to apply leadership, and learn the practice, in one’s own career and work

---

CourseLiterature

Identification and analysis of recent academic and managerial articles in leading journals; Other leadership materials of note in various media; Interviews of selected business leaders; Interaction with leadership program faculty in various academic institutions

---

Last updated

August 5, 2020