Message from the Program Chairs

TrustCom 2022

On behalf of the Program Committee of the 21st IEEE International Conference on Trust, Security and Privacy in Computing and Communications (IEEE TrustCom 2022), we look forward to welcoming you to attend the conference in physically Wuhan, China, 28-30 October 2022 and online.

TrustCom 2022 Conference aims at bringing together researchers and practitioners in the world working on trusted computing and communications, with regard to trust, security, privacy, reliability, dependability, survivability, availability, and fault tolerance aspects of computer systems and networks, and providing a forum to present and discuss emerging ideas and trends in this highly challenging research field.

TrustCom 2022 is the next event in a series of highly successful international conferences on trust and privacy, to name a few, previously held as TrustCom 2021 in Shenyang, China, TrustCom 2020 in Guangzhou, China, TrustCom 2019 in New Zealand TrustCom 2018 in New York, USA, TrustCom 2017 in Sydney, Australia, TrustCom 2016 in Tianjin, China, TrustCom 2015 in Helsinki, Finland, TrustCom 2014 in Beijing, China, TrustCom 2013 in Melbourne, Australia, TrustCom 2012 in Liverpool, United Kingdom and so on.

TrustCom 2022 Conference collected research papers on the related research issues from all around the world. In a high-quality review process, all papers have been commented and well handled by our reviewers. According to the review results, 131 papers are selected for oral presentation at the conference, giving an acceptance rate of 25%.

We would like to offer our gratitude to Prof. Guojun Wang and Prof. Laurence T. Yang, and all other Steering Committee Chairs. Our thanks also go to the General Chairs, Prof. Mauro Conti, University of Padua, Italy, prof. Deqing Zou, Huazhong University of Science and Technology, China, and Prof. Pierangela Samarati, Università degli Studi di Milano, Italy, for their great support and valuable suggestions to make the final program successfully. In particular, we would like to thank all researchers and practitioners for their submissions, and to the Program Committee and the external reviewers that contributed their professional reviews under a very tight schedule. Moreover, we would like to give our great thanks to our keynote speakers who have kindly accepted our invitation to give their insightful talks.

Finally, we sincerely hope that the conference will provide a good platform to share your experiences and ideas of the participants, and also hope all the participants can enjoy the conference.
